

Note: It has been requested that the agenda for upcoming board meetings be posted on the Alganssee website. I will start that practice this month, posting under the "Minutes" category. Please keep in mind that this is a living document right up to the portion of the meeting where the board votes to amend and accept the agenda. As changes and additions are made, I will repost this document to the website up to the day of the meeting.

Alganssee Branch Library Report

Wireless-92

All is good at the Library,not many children at craft time,but we have a good group of 11 to 13 year old's. They bring in lots of ideas for crafts and Jess is reading chapter books to them while they are crafting.

It is time again for our One Book,One Community at our Branch County Libraries.The book for this year is "The Hunger Games"Author is Suzanne Collins. There are several books at all branches. Alganssee Library will have book discussion for this book March 21,at 5:00 p.m. till 6:00 p.m. The Branch County Libraries are not only having book discussions,but inviting folks to talk on survival techniques. All information will be posted on Library web sights. The movie of The "Hunger games" will be in Coldwater theater last of March,each Library will draw 2 names for tickets to the movie,with names of patrons that come to book discussion. This a book for adults and young adults.

If anybody ever needs any information about the Libraries or help with books,I will be glad to do whatever I can.

Thank You

Jan
